

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE

CITY ITEMS.

MONDAY, AUGUST 2.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—A man named Henn was rescued from drowning at about 8 o'clock last night, at 22 East 23rd Street, by two men who were looking for him. He was found floating in the water, and was rescued by officer F. J. Murphy, of the Fourth Ward.

POLICE.—The room of Mr. E. H. Hannan, at 300 West Broadway, was burglariously entered last night, by persons who had the keys of his safe, and took $1,000 and a key which was valued at $75. A man who recognized his name as E. Hannan, stated he is not the owner of the safe, and that it has been sold to another. "I am as sure of this as I can be," he said. "I never read it before it will be good to have it in my form. It is published in a way similar to that of a newspaper, so some price of that popular work."

MIRROR LIBRARY.

NEW SERIES.—The political novel, entitled "New York Mirror," a weekly, $1 per copy, is now published, making a handsome volume of 300 pages, and for sale by all the booksellers. This work contains a graphic history of the present Presidential campaign, showing up the various phases of the contest, and the influence of money in politics. It is the greatest interest throughout the country. It contains more fact than fiction, and life-like sketches of more than fifty leading politicians.
